Q6 Testimonials

- Face to face trade show is the best.
- This is our first time event and had a satisfactory outcome.
- The organizer took solid hygiene measures. I felt safe to participate and meet visitors.
- This event is a kind of leaning opportunity for both company development and staff training.
- I fairly understood about industry trends and user needs.
- Prior information from the organizer/show management office was great helpful. Thanks to this information, we could showcase right products for the clients.
- We would like to participate both on-site and digital shows at the same time.
- I would like to see the featured exhibition zone about aftermarket future direction at the next show.
- Please consider the show period include the weekend so that visitors from maintenance factories can join the event who are difficult to attend on weekdays.
